

Course Agenda

Humanitarian protection: a generalist approach to protection

Day 1	Day 2
Introduction to the course: welcoming, Presentation of course objectives and agenda	DG ECHO policy and approach to protection: overview of DG ECHO's new Thematic Policy on Protection and its position in the wider panorama of humanitarian protection.
A "Generalist" and strategic approach to Protection work: main concepts and dimensions around protection, assessment of the main protection objectives of a project proposal	Designing an integrated protection intervention: Design the objectives and expected outcomes of an integrated protection intervention and how to mainstreaming protection into it.
Normative frameworks in protection: overview of the international standards for civilian protection, identification of the key players in humanitarian protection, respective roles and responsibilities.	Protection in the project management: assessment of a project proposal from the point of view of protection
Strategic approaches to protection work: assessment of the different strategic approaches to protection	Final points and closure: presentation of the Capacity4Dev online tool, final question, evaluation, wrap up and closure.